Who do we work with to provide financial services to you?

We work together with other service providers to offer financial services to you. These may include your accountant, lawyer and/or financial planner, as well as our third-party providers.

Information you must provide to obtain personal advice

If you seek any personal advice from us, your Adviser must act in your best interest and consider your personal objectives, current financial situation and investment needs. You will be requested to provide these details in your client profile. We will retain a copy of this profile. You should inform your Adviser of any changes to this information. All information retained will be kept strictly confidential subject to our Privacy Policy.

If you choose not to provide some or all of this information, any advice you receive may be compromised in terms of the appropriateness of the recommendation, and you will need to consider whether or not the recommendation is appropriate for your particular investment needs, objectives and financial circumstances. You should consider these warnings carefully. In addition, your ability to make a claim against Canaccord Genuity or your Adviser may also be limited. This process does not apply in relation to 'general advice', as may be contained in research reports, newsletters, or provided verbally, which is prepared without consideration of your objectives, financial situation and needs.

Statement of Advice and Record of Advice

As a retail client, when we provide you with personal advice we will also provide our Statement of Advice which records the advice we have given you, its basis and scope, any commissions, fees and any benefits, or associations we may have, relevant to the advice provided.

Unless there has been a material change in your personal circumstance you will not receive a further Statement of Advice. Any advice provided to you will be recorded by your Adviser as a Record of Advice (RoA). You may request a copy of any Record of Advice by contacting us at any time. Records of Advice are retained for 7 years after the date on which the advice was initially provided.

Remuneration and providing instructions

How are Canaccord Genuity and others remunerated for the financial services we offer?

Investment security transactions traded on ASX, Chi-X & NSX

Canaccord Genuity will charge you a fee for facilitating the purchase and/or sale of investment securities traded on these markets. This may be a transaction or asset based fee, or a combination of both.

Asset based fee

Asset based fees vary depending on the value of your portfolio and the services Canaccord Genuity provides. Fees are calculated on the net value of your portfolio excluding any geared amounts, unless you borrowed funds and used these to acquire financial products before 1 July 2013. Your Adviser will inform you of the details and amount of your asset based fee prior to entering into any transactions with Canaccord Genuity.

Transaction based fee

Under this arrangement, you will be charged a fee for each "buy" and "sell" transaction we arrange on your behalf. In most cases, the amount will be based on the value of the transaction. This fee may change from time to time, and you will be advised of any such changes before they take effect. Following the execution of a transaction, you will be sent a trade confirmation outlining the total fee charged by Canaccord Genuity as well as any applicable government charges. We have disclosed our maximum rates below. The transaction based fee payable will be arranged between you and your Adviser. These rates are negotiable depending on a number of factors including the amount of your investment spending, the frequency of trading, and the level of service required. These rates and fees are exclusive of GST.

If you fail to settle any trades, we may also charge you interest on the amount outstanding, as set out in our Terms & Conditions.

Standard charges for security transactions

For example, for a transaction valued at $10,000, the maximum charge would be a transaction fee of $200 plus $20 in GST.

Value of Transaction	Transaction fee (ex. GST)
Up to $5,000	2.5%, $90 minimum
Between $5,001 & $15,000	2%
Between $15,001 & $50,000	1.5%
Over $50,000	1%

All security trading must be settled within T+2 (trade date plus two business days). The following fees may be imposed against those trades that fail to settle on the designated date (GST is payable on all fees):

Late Settlements on Buy Transactions – an initial fail fee of $50 and a dishonour fee of $50. Canaccord Genuity may charge a default fee equal to 12.5% p.a. of the outstanding amount calculated daily, subject to a minimum of $50.

Late Settlements on Sell Transactions – an initial fail fee of $50, a borrow fee of $100 per borrow. In addition, the ASX imposes fail fees which may be passed on to you. ASX fail fees are currently charged at $100 per day for trades valued less than $100,000, or 0.10% of the value of the outstanding amount up to $5,000 per day.

Settlement deadlines are clearly specified on all transaction confirmations. Canaccord Genuity may also charge fees for specific administrative services such as international bank transfers, cheque cancellations, replacement cheques, registry transfers and re-bookings. For further information on these fees please contact your Canaccord Genuity Adviser.

Off Market Transfers – we charge the following fees exclusive of GST for transfers:

- HIN to HIN $20 per transfer
- Issuer to HIN $30 per transfer
- HIN to issuer $40 per transfer
- Deceased Estate Transfers $50 per transfer.

Research, Placement and Underwriting of securities and managed investment products by Canaccord Genuity

We conduct detailed research and issue research reports on securities, including those which our Advisers may advise you on. From time to time we may arrange for the placement of securities on behalf of its clients, and will receive fees for our advisory, management and distribution role. Canaccord Genuity may also underwrite an issue of securities or interests in managed investment schemes from time to time and will receive an underwriting fee in relation to such transactions. We also act as a trader and dealer, both as principal and agent, in major financial markets and, as such, may hold long or short positions in any securities which our Advisers may advise you on.

Remuneration to and from other entities

New Clients: As a guide, if you have become a client of Canaccord Genuity from 1 July 2013 onwards, Canaccord Genuity may not receive commission payments in relation to financial advice provided to you, except in certain circumstances permitted by law, including:

Life Insurance Products: Canaccord Genuity may receive commission in relation to products which are not related to a group life risk policy inside superannuation fund whether for a default or other type of superannuation fund, or an individual life insurance policy for the benefit of a member of a default fund.

In such circumstances, commissions will generally fall within the range set out in the table below and a Statement of Advice will be provided where applicable.

Existing Client: If you were a client of Canaccord Genuity before 1 July 2013, and your engagement arrangement included any commissions payable to Canaccord Genuity, Canaccord Genuity will continue to receive these commissions from financial product providers. In such circumstances, commissions will generally fall within the range set out in the table below.

Product	Commission / Payment we may receive (ex. GST)
Managed Funds	- Upfront commission can range from 0 to 5% - Ongoing commission can range from 0% p.a. to 5% p.a.
Cash Management	Ongoing commission can range from approximately 0% p.a. to 0.65% p.a.
Trusts /Accounts
Margin Lenders	Ongoing commission can range from 0% p.a. to 0.75% p.a. of the margin lending facility
Life Insurance	- Life Insurance first year commission (upfront) range between 0% and 60% - Renewal commissions on life products range between 0% and 30%

For further details about any commissions which Canaccord Genuity may receive in relation to your investments please contact your Adviser.

We will disclose the payment amount due by you or any payment which Canaccord Genuity is legally entitled to receive, prior to, or at the time we offer to provide you with financial services to which these fees relate. Where applicable these fees will also be disclosed in the relevant Product Disclosure Statement and/or a Statement of Advice.

Where it is permitted by law, your Adviser may receive a proportion of the fees received by Canaccord Genuity from the financial services provided to you. The amount of the fees will depend on the services provided and will be disclosed to you prior to or at the time the services are provided, in a Statement of Advice or other documentation.

Your Adviser may also receive alternative forms of remunerations such as attendance at conferences wholly or partly subsidised by product providers, assistance with marketing expenses, and other nonmonetary benefits such as gift vouchers or complimentary tickets to events. Canaccord Genuity keeps a register detailing certain nonmonetary benefits that the Adviser receives.

Our Advisers, and the employees and directors of related companies, may be eligible for bonuses by meeting their behavioural and financial performance targets, and may also be eligible to receive shares in various companies in the global Canaccord Genuity Group. We may receive fees, normally determined as a percentage of revenue, from external parties where we have referred you to them for expert advice (e.g. insurance or mortgage brokers) where permitted by law.

We may also receive payments or benefits from financial product issuers to assist in training of Advisers or marketing of their product. We may be paid volume bonuses and/or other incentives directly from financial product issuers where this is permitted by law. This amount or percentage will vary from issuer to issuer.

A referral fee may be paid to a third party such as a financial planner where this is permitted by law. Any third-party payments will depend on the particular circumstances and the particular arrangements we have in place with the referrer. We will disclose any referral fees and referral arrangements in full to you at the time of transacting business.

Canaccord Genuity's association with financial product issuers – any potential conflict of interest

Aside from our work in capital markets, we do not advise or deal in any financial products for retail clients where we have an association with a financial product issuer.

How you may give instructions

You may specify how you would like to give instructions to us (for example: by telephone, fax, email or through a third party). If you wish to give instructions via a third party, you must complete the third-party Authority contained in the Client Services Agreement form. You can obtain this form from your Adviser.
