Paul Reynolds, President and CEO of Canaccord Financial Inc. said: “Fiscal 2013 was a pivotal year for Canaccord Financial, as we integrated the largest acquisition in the firm’s history. In doing so, we eliminated significant costs, aligned staffing levels with market opportunities and grew our cross-border client services. Together, these activities have strengthened our business and meaningfully enhanced our operating margins since the beginning of the year.”

Mr. Reynolds added: “Our acquisition of Collins Stewart enhanced our sector coverage considerably, which has played an important role in our ability to offset supressed resource sector activity. It also expanded the scope of our international operations. In fact, over half of our revenue is now generated from operations outside of Canada, significantly improving the diversity and consistency of our revenue streams.”

Non-IFRS Measures
The non-International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS) measures presented include assets under administration, assets under management, book value per diluted common share, return on common equity and figures that exclude significant items. Significant items include restructuring costs, amortization of intangible assets and acquisition-related expense items, which include costs recognized in relation to both prospective and completed acquisitions. Management believes that these non-IFRS measures will allow for a better evaluation of the operating performance of Canaccord’s business and facilitate meaningful comparison of results in the current period to those in prior periods and future periods. Figures that exclude significant items provide useful information by excluding certain items that may not be indicative of Canaccord’s core operating results. A limitation of utilizing these figures

3 Advisory Teams are normally comprised of one or more Investment Advisors (IAs) and their assistants and associates, who together manage a shared set of client accounts. Advisory Teams that are led by, or only include, an IA who has been licensed for less than three years are not included in our Advisory Team count, as it typically takes a new IA approximately three years to build an average-sized book of business.
that exclude significant items is that the IFRS accounting effects of these items do in fact reflect the underlying financial results of Canaccord’s business; thus, these effects should not be ignored in evaluating and analyzing Canaccord’s financial results. Therefore, management believes that Canaccord’s IFRS measures of financial performance and the respective non-IFRS measures should be considered together.
