

If your money is managed by Hargreave Hale Limited trading as CGWM then read on.

FRAUD WARNING

If your money is managed by Hargreave Hale Limited trading as CGWM then read on.

We are aware that the Hargreave Hale brand name and logo are being used fraudulently, in an attempt to engage and exploit unsuspecting investors. In some cases the Hargreave Hale logo and our office address are being used to give the impression that this fraudulent activity is genuine.

Should you receive an unsolicited call or written communication from any party purporting to represent Hargreave Hale, we ask you not to respond.

We would ask that you call our main administration office in Blackpool on 01253 754700 where your call will be directed to our fraud officer.

We also advise that anyone who receives unexpected emails, promoting 'offers and services' not to respond and avoid opening any links contain within these emails. Irrespective of the method of contact, you should avoid divulging personal details, credentials or any other types of confidential information to a fraudster.

This warning also applies to anyone who has invested in the Hargreave Hale AIM VCTs and who is contacted regarding the sale of their shares at an inflated price.