Our supply chains

Canaccord Genuity Wealth Management's supply chain includes, but is not limited to:

- IT hardware and software
- Building facilities and office supplies
- Payroll services
- Legal, accountancy and other professional intermediaries
- Financial market data and news
- Transaction related services and infrastructure.

Our policies and principles

We are committed to conducting business ethically and to ensuring that there is no modern slavery or human trafficking in our business or in our supply chains.

Employees are provided with training as part of the induction process to ensure they have a high level of understanding of the risks of modern slavery and human trafficking in our business and supply chains. We expect our suppliers to meet the same high standards.

We have in place a number of company and Group policies which address issues relevant to modern slavery and human trafficking, including:

- Codes of Conduct
- Written employment practices and procedures which ensure fair recruitment and treatment of employees
- Written whistleblowing policy and procedure which enables employees to report in confidence concerns of malpractice or other unethical behaviour, which would include any concern related to modern slavery and human trafficking issues.

Our continuing commitment

We will continue to monitor and review our existing policies during the current financial year, with the aim of ensuring that modern slavery and human trafficking does not occur in any part of our business or our supply chains.

Approved by the Board

This statement is made pursuant to section 54(1) of the Modern Slavery Act 2015 and constitutes Canaccord Genuity Wealth Management's modern slavery and human trafficking statement for the financial year ended 31 March 2021.
